

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

(From Monday's Daily)

Former Ashland Man Is Improving—

Word has been received from Mrs. Louis Schwein, at San Francisco, that her brother, A. L. Barker, who has been confined in the Southern Pacific hospital with inflammatory rheumatism, is slowly improving.

Goes to Los Angeles—

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sander, of Oak and Helman streets, left last Friday for Los Angeles to spend a couple of weeks.

Ashland Girl Return from San Francisco—

Miss Dorris Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Montgomery, of B street, who has been spending the past two weeks visiting in San Francisco, has returned.

To Princeton, Calif.—

Mr. George Vroman left last evening for his home at Princeton, Calif. Mr. Vroman has been visiting his parents in Gold Hill and Mrs. L. M. Ring in Ashland.

W. C. T. U. Meeting—

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in Library Building 2:30 p. m. Tuesday. All members with their friends are requested to attend.

Visiting Here—

Mr. Glenn D. Rhodes, Railway mail clerk of Alameda, Calif., arrived in Ashland last evening for a visit with his friend, Floyd Place.

Motored to Hornbrook—

Mr. W. J. Stevens, Mrs. J. G. Cozart and family motored over the Siskiyou yesterday to Hornbrook, California taking pictures of the beautiful snow scenes in the mountains.

Mrs. Herndon Sick—

Mrs. Walter Herndon, of 155 Eighth street, is confined to her bed with a cold.

Moved—

Chester E. Jones and family have moved from 111 Beach street to 370 Hargadine street. Mr. Jones is employed at the Lithia Bakery.

Resumes Duties After Illness—

Mrs. Bessie M. Wilson, of 175 Mead street, bookkeeper for the Whittle Transfer Co., who has been sick for the past week, is able to resume her duties.

Former Residents Pass Through—

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Stanley and two daughters of Portland passed through Ashland this morning, they are driving through to Los Angeles and expect to spend some weeks in southern California. Mr. Stanley is general manager for the Alaska Coal and Coke company, with offices in Portland. He formerly lived in Ashland and was a boyhood friend of Howard Rose, of Rose Bros.

Legion Membership Drive—

This week the American Legion membership drive is on, with the entire 105 posts of Oregon enlisted in the campaign. Locally, Ashland Post No. 14, also the Women's Auxiliary, will take a leading part. All ex-service men should join the ranks, reinforced also by the feminine contingent.

Away Store Removal—

The Army Store, formerly located at 203 East Main street, has removed to the quarters formerly occupied by Orris the Tailor. W. F. Jordan, the proprietor of the Army Store, is a well known business man in Ashland, he proposes to make some improvements in the arrangement of the interior of the new location, which will make it among the attractive stores of the town.

Expressman Returns from the South

Bert Turner and daughter, of 256 Sixth street, returned this morning on train 14, after spending a very delightful two weeks at Glendale, Calif., visiting with Mr. Turner's mother.

Grand Jury in February—

The next session of the grand jury will be called the third Monday in February. When the jury completes the work of the February term, a new grand jury will be drawn.

L. J. Orris Changes Location—

L. J. Orris, the tailor, the man who has helped to clothe Ashland for the past ten years, has moved from his location on East Main street, to room 1 in the Beaver block annex. Mr. Orris is one of our most progressive tailors and a great believer in Ashland, came here from Humboldt, Iowa, in 1907, and has been in the tailoring business since 1912. Today he is inaugurating a smiling face contest with five, twenty and one dollar as first, second and third prizes, these prizes to go to the children bringing him the most smiling faces, cut from magazines and newspapers with part of the advertisement attached.

Return from Northern Visit—

Mrs. Nellie Conner and daughter, Mrs. Frank Hanna, of 319 East Main street, returned Sunday from their visit with relatives and friends in Seattle, Tacoma and Portland.

Portland Visitor—

Mrs. J. M. Dietrich, of Portland, arrived yesterday on train 13 to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Shriner, at 467 Scenic Drive.

From Yreka—

Mr. John Morgan, a former Ashland resident, but now of Yreka, is spending a couple of days here visiting relatives and friends.

Gone to Pendleton—

W. F. Buchner and family, from east of town, left Saturday for Pendleton, where they will visit their son for a time.

To Come Back—

The F. D. Swingles, who are spending the winter in Santiago, write to Ashland friends that they are enjoying it there, but still think Ashland is the best place yet and plan to come back in the spring.

Visits from Medford—

O. N. Wilson and family of Medford visited at the O. W. Fraley home on Mountain avenue on Sunday. Mr. Wilson is a brother of Mrs. C. W. Fraley.

Improved in Health—

Grandma Sanders, mother of W. G. Sanders, is reported to be much improved in health after her recent illness.

Visits Sick—

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yeo, Mrs. William Yoe and Mrs. Maggie Culbertson of this city were Medford visitors Sunday. They visited Mrs. Bert Sargent who is ill at the Sacred Heart hospital at Medford.

Dinner and Theater Party—

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jordan, of 678 Boulevard, delightfully entertained a party of friends with a dinner and theater party on Sunday evening. Covers were laid for eleven. The guests of the evening were, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Corling and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Beck.

Visitor from Washington—

Frank Patterson of Medford is enjoying a visit from his mother who has been in Washington with her daughter for some time.

Art Club Meeting—

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Art Club will be held this evening in Pioneer Hall at 7:30. A warm welcome is extended to all members by the hostesses, Mrs. A. C. Briggs and Mrs. Sam McNair.

Travel Through Snow—

The Thos. McKinnis family who left here for Pleasant Hill just before the holidays, write back to friends that they motored through in a day and traveled through snow all the way after leaving Grants Pass arriving in Pleasant Hill about 5:45 in the evening.

Missionary Meeting—

The Woman's Missionary society of the Christian church met Friday afternoon at the church. Special music was rendered by Mrs. Jessie Judkins and Mrs. Ruby Harvey. Others on the program were Mrs. J. V. Wright, Mrs. Laura Rowley, Mrs. F. C. Wilmot, Mrs. W. A. Cooper, and Mrs. Josephine Champe. Following the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Delpha Bryant and Mrs. Luke Bonnin to all present.

VISITS AFTER TWENTY YEARS

Former Ashland School Principal Visits Old Friends

They all come back. After twenty years pent in various parts of the northwest, Robert A. Hopkins, principal of the North school where the Junior high school now stands, returned to Ashland Saturday for a brief visit with friends for the sake of "Auld Lang Syne." Mr. Hopkins is with a Portland company, manufacturing waterproofing preparation and left for his northern headquarters after reviewing old times. Mr. Hopkins concluded his teaching days in city, afterward going to Spokane, Wash., and later locating at Portland. Because of the birth of his son, Alfred C. Hopkins here, he has many pleasant memories of Ashland. Mr. Hopkins' father-in-law, William Huse, formerly published an Ashland newspaper here known as Town Talk. Mr. Huse afterwards moved to Klamath Falls where he published the Record, later selling his interests there. Gene Huse, son of the one time Ashland publisher, is owner of the Wayne Herald, Wayne, Neb. a paper recognized in newspaperdom as the best country weekly in the United States.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Visits Dr. Brower Home—

Mrs. J. E. Barrett, of Albany, spent last night with Dr. and Mrs. Brower, 216 Factory street. She is on her way to northern California to visit.

Leave for Los Angeles—

Dr. S. T. Songer and his niece, Miss Millie E. Songer, leave tonight on train 15 for Los Angeles, where they will remain for two or three months.

Visit Parents Here—

Mrs. C. P. Good, of Los Angeles, arrived in Ashland yesterday to visit for a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Arnold, who reside north of town on the highway. Mrs. Good was superintendent of the Granite City hospital from 1913 to 1917.

Return from Harrisburg—

Mrs. Mary F. Swigart returned to Ashland Tuesday evening after spending the past five months with her daughters, Mrs. Dr. Leslie Kent, at Harrisburg, and Mrs. A. L. Strickland, of Portland.

Medford Mayor at Portland—

Mayor C. E. Gates of Medford left yesterday evening for a week's stay at Portland, addressing meetings and attending state boards of which he is a member. Today he addressed the Progressive Business Men's luncheon, and in the afternoon attended the meeting of the 1925 exposition state committee. On Friday he will attend the State Elks' association meeting as a delegate. Next Monday noon the mayor will address the forum of the Portland chamber of commerce, and on Monday afternoon and evening, he will attend the meeting of the state fair board.

Leave for California—

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Stevens, of 746 C street, will leave tomorrow for a six weeks trip to southern California.

May Delay Bonus—

There is a probability that the ex-service men who prefer cash from the state of Oregon, as provided in the bonus law, will not receive it until about March 1. The bonds will be sold January 16, and then there will be the necessity of having printed the bonds drawing the rate of interest bid. This with other technical delays will delay the distribution of the money about two months.—Salem Statesman.

Undergoes Operation—

Mrs. Ella White, 167 Mountain avenue, underwent a very serious operation at a local hospital this morning. The patient is doing well.

Entertains at Dinner—

Mrs. O. O. Hellman, of Otis and Laurel street, entertained Mrs. Evelyn Caldwell and Miss Sidna Hellman yesterday evening with a five course dinner.

Backfiring Auto Burns—

The backfiring of a Studebaker car belonging to R. Trusty, 72 Fifth street, resulted in an explosion, igniting the flooded carburetor and setting fire to the car. The car and garage were completely ruined. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

Espee Labor Leader Stops Here—

S. A. Mundell, of Oakland, Calif., general chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of America, for the Pacific district of the Southern Pacific company, is in town today, attempting to settle some differences between the men and the company.

B. R. C. of A. to Meet—

The Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of America will hold their annual installation of officers next Friday night in Moose hall. A social session will follow the installation.

Frisco Nurse Visits—

Miss Ruby Wilcox, formerly a nurse in the Lane hospital, San Francisco, visited Miss Ethel Trout-fether yesterday.

Confined by Illness—

Master Wallace Stearns, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Stearns on Granite street, is confined to his home by illness.

Locates o Iowa Street—

Miss Lenora Gilkinson has recently moved to 744 Iowa street.

Siskiyou Snow Fight—

Arthur and Ethel Trauttfether, Marjorie Coleman and Theodore

Russell motored to the top of the Siskiyou and indulged in a snow ball fight, followed by a lunch and hot coffee made over a camp fire.

Return to Newport—

George Ashcraft and family, of Newport, Or., who have been visiting for the past week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Ashcraft, north of town, have returned home.

Move Here from Medford—

L. A. Dew and family, formerly of Medford, are occupying a home at 88 B street.

Move to B Street—

C. A. McCoy and family, formerly of 566 Allison street, have moved to 460 B street.

Canadian Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hildreth, of Vancouver, B. C., were visitors New Year's day at the I. D. Pittman home, Iowa and Avery streets. Mrs. Hildreth is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pittman.

John Fuller Returns—

John H. Fuller returned from Portland this morning on train 13.

Espee Engineer Improves—

R. W. Fiddler, who was struck by an automobile while spending the holidays in Sacramento, is improving and will soon be able to resume his place as an engineer for the Southern Pacific company.

Espee Clerk Takes Vacation—

B. R. Stevens, residing on C street, a clerk in the car department of the Southern Pacific company, will leave for southern California in a few days on account of his health and will be gone for two months. G. A. Balen, of Denver, Colo., will occupy his place during his stay in the south.

Returns from Portland—

Charles R. Day, employee of the Southern Pacific company, returned yesterday from Portland where he had spent the week end and New Year's day.

Legion Auxiliary to Meet—

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. B. Wolcott, 248 Third street.

Returns from Holiday Vacation—

Carl Peterson returned yesterday from Portland, where he had spent the holidays.

Returns from San Francisco—

Mr. and Mrs. L. Hilly, Gresham street, have returned from San Francisco, where they have been visiting during the past several days. Mr. Hilly will remain in Ashland for a few days before returning to Klamath Falls, where he is employed by the Southern Pacific company.

Install I. O. O. F. Officers—

The Independent Order of Oddfellows will install their newly elected officers tonight at their hall on North Main street. Those to be installed are: Frank Guisinger, noble grand; C. H. Blake, vice noble grand; L. A. Roberts, recording secretary, and E. C. Payne, financial secretary. A social session will be held after the installation.

Texas Visitor Leaves—

W. N. Jay, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. S. A. Hawks, 128 Factory street, left Sunday morning for Corpus Christi, Texas.

C. A. Pauleys Visit—

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pauley, of Klamath Falls, were in town yesterday visiting friends. They are on their way to Portland and stopped to transact some business. Mr. Pauley formerly owned the East Side meat market here.

Celebrates 85th Birthday—

R. A. Comstock, 115 Bush street, celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday yesterday.

(From Saturday's Daily)

Jerry O'Neal to Move—

Monday morning will see the plumbing shop of Jerry O'Neal, one of Ashland's enterprising young business men, established in a new home on East Main street in the store room now occupied by the Army Goods store. Mr. O'Neal will start today moving his store fixtures from the Beaver building storeroom which he has occupied for the past two years. Mr. O'Neal is one of Ashland's best known business men, having resided here for several years, and forecasts a brighter future for the city's growth. He will improve his new storeroom by the installation of demonstrating outfit and other equipment which will make it one of the most modern shops of its kind in Southern Oregon.

Former Ashland Man Dies—

C. S. Johnson, a former resident of Ashland and contributor to the Tidings died at Kingman, Arizona, December 12, and was buried there.

Mrs. Johnson and son, contrary to expectations of some Ashland people, will remain in Kingman and the house which they had commenced prior to the death of Mr. Johnson. Mr. Johnson carried $3,000 insurance in the local camp of the Modern Woodmen.

Spend Week End Here—

A. L. Perce and Lee Peachy are in from Anderson Creek for the week end.

Accepts New Position—

Miss Louise Harrell has accepted the position with Rose Brothers, which was formerly held by Miss Pearl Ruger. Miss Ruger was recently married.

Will Teach School—

Miss Alice Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Butler Walker, of East Main street, leaves Sunday morning to teach a school near Brownsboro.

Return to Richmond, Calif.—

Miss Gertrude Engle, formerly principal of the Junior high school of Ashland, who has been visiting with her brother Fred Engle and family of 534 Boulevard, returns to Richmond, Calif. today. Miss Engle is now principal of Stege school of Richmond.

Undergoes Operation—

Mrs. Frank Landing, wife of Frank Landing of 1111 Iowa street, was operated on yesterday at a local hospital.

Truck Knocks Hydrant—

A truck, belonging to the Ashland Lumber company, when backing to unload some lumber at the East Side Pharmacy, struck the main hydrant at the corner of Second and East Main streets, breaking it off. The city water department was notified, and succeeded in making temporary repairs.

Ashland Wins Basketball Game—

The basketball games last night resulted in victory for the Ashland team. Talent, which joined the state association during the past season, suffered a defeat at the hands of the local team to the tune of 25 to 11, this being the first association game of the season, and therefore starts our local team with a 100 per cent. showing.

Visitor From Yreka—

Mr. and Mrs. Gross, of Yreka, visited with Mrs. Dodson 431 North Main street, for a couple of days this week.

New Year Guests—

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Head of Ashland and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Head, of Fort Jones, California, were New Year's guests at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fish of North Talent.

Funeral Mrs. Ella White—

The funeral services for Mrs. Ella White will be held at the residence, 167 Mountain Avenue, Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Josephine Champe officiating and assisted by the Women's Relief Corps. Interment will be made in Mountain View cemetery.

Trinity Guild to Elect Officers—

The Trinity Guild will serve a covered dish dinner at 6 o'clock on Monday evening in the Parish house after which will be held the church business meeting, to elect officers for the ensuing year.

To Visit Grandmother—

The Misses Edna and Eva Watkins, of North Talent, left for Lynd, Wash., last Tuesday, to visit their grandmother, Mrs. William Best. This is the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Watkins and family, before coming to Talent to reside, consequently the young ladies have a host of old friends in their old home town, with whom they will visit. The Misses Watkins have been in the employ of the Crowson's confectionery, at Medford, and will greatly enjoy their vacation.

Talent Dancing Party—

There was another of those very enjoyable dancing parties at Talent last Friday night, which was largely attended.

Hay from North Talent—

Parties from Ashland have been engaging some of C. Cary's fine barley hay since the cold spell of weather set in. Mr. Wilton of Ashland, has been hauling hay, too, from North Talent.

Return to Dunsmuir—

Mrs. Winnie Hoak has returned to Dunsmuir after a delightful visit with her mother, Mrs. Belle Butcher, on East Main Street.

To Resume R. R. Work—

A news despatch from Klamath Falls says: "Early resumption of work on the Strahorn railroad north and east of Klamath Falls, tapping one of the finest pine timber belts in the west, is seen in the report received here Wednesday from Portland that Robert E. Strahorn had won his suit against the Oregon, California & Eastern for recovery of $472,000 in capital stock, and an amendment to the transportation act which clears certain technicalities heretofore standing in the way of approval by the Interstate commerce commission to floating a $55,000 bond issue. It has been known here for some time that Strahorn had succeeded in marketing the bonds and it is understood that the suit was initiated to remove obstacles."

Spends Christmas with Mother—

Mrs. T. H. Fish of West Talent, was taken to her daughters, Mrs. Murdette Dodge, of Medford, to spend the Christmas and New Year holidays. Although Mrs. Fish cannot leave her bed, she is enjoying her annual visit with her daughter and family.

Return to Williams—

Mr. and Mrs. Duke, of Williams, returned to their home Friday, after spending the week of Christmas festivities with Mrs. Duke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Button, of North Talent.

Buys Heifer Heed—

Earl Brisco of North Talent, has bought a nice herd of yearling heifers from Will Ferns this week, and had them driven over to the Patterson ranch, where he will feed them the remainder of the winter.

May Locate in Canada—

Edward Gattie, who was employed for two years at Enders Grocery, has gone to Canada to visit his brothers. He may locate there permanently if he finds a satisfactory position.

Alden Powell Ill—

Alden Powell, one of the proprietors of the Square Deal grocery, is suffering from the after effects of "flu" and is not able to be at the store.

Rogue River Visitor—

John McLaren, of Rogue River, is a business visitor in Ashland today.

Visit Barnhouse Family—

Vern Selders and wife stopped over night with J. L. Barnhouse and family of 685 Boulevard last night. They are on their way to their Portland home from Los Angeles where they have been visiting for some time.

Arrive from Canada—

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Jones arrived last night from Alberta, Canada, and are now located on Granite street at a home rented in advance of their arrival. Mr. Jones is a son of Mrs. Ada W. Jones, 300 Liberty street and a cousin of Mrs. George J. Kintz. Mr. Jones has farming interests in Canada which he is trying to dispose of with the intention of locating here permanently.

Return to Frisco—

Miss Elizabeth Pinneran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Pinneran, Eighth and A streets, has returned to San Francisco, after spending her vacation with her parents.

COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOLS MEET

Mrs. Josephine Champe Ashland Supt. Children's Division (From Thursday's Daily)

At a meeting of the Jackson County Sunday School association officers and workers, held in Medford Tuesday, the following persons were elected to office: President of the Talent and Phoenix district, Joseph B. Webster; Talent-Medford district, Prof. Aubrey Smith, Medford; Central Point district, E. C. Faber, Central Point; administrative division superintendent, Walter Frazier Brown, Phoenix; adult division superintendent, George M. Mordoff, Medford; young people's division superintendent, Mrs. C. H. Pierce, Medford; children's division superintendent, Mrs. Josephine Champe, Ashland.

The other county officers are: President, J. A. Bickerdike, Talent; vice president, Clyde Hillis, Medford; secretary and treasurer, W. W. Robinson, Ashland.

Plans were also made at this meeting for a series of one-day Sunday school institutes to be held at Ashland, Phoenix, Medford and Central Point on January 24 to 27 inclusive. Rev. W. L. Van Nuy, Miss Georgia Parker and Mrs. Clara G. Essen, all of Portland, have been secured as speakers, and this promises good things for these institutes.

MRS. DE HAAS FUNERAL HELD

Mrs. Jane Eliza De Haas, 70, Buried in Mountain View Cemetery (From Thursday's Daily)

The funeral of Mrs. Eliza Jane De Haas, 76, who died Saturday at her home at 39 Union street, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Dodge undertaking parlors. Rev. Walter A. Evans, pastor of the Baptist church, officiating. Interment was made in the Mountain View cemetery.

Mrs. De Haas was the widow of James De Haas. She has resided in Ashland for the past four years and was born March 9, 1845. She is survived by a son, Ivan C. De Haas, and two grandchildren.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Ella White's funeral was conducted at the family residence on Mountain avenue Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Josephine Champe and the W. R. C. ladies officiating. The following notes were read:

Miss Ella Clemens was born at Troy, Ill., in 1864. She was married in 1890 to Ed Rial, to this union was born 5 children of which only one survives. Mrs. Minnie Henson of Ashland, Or. Mr. Rial died in 1905 and his widow was married to Ed White of Ashland, Or., April 1919.